Wanted—A good girl for general housework. Mrs. J. W. Squire, 322 Story street.

David Tostevin and George Walcott were fined for drunkenness in police court yesterday morning.

Thomas C. Carroll of Omaha and Margaret

Maloney of this city took out a license to marry yesterday.

Alfred B. Johnson and Mary Montgomery, both of Omaha, were married yesterday afternoon by Judge Sweeney.

The funeral of Charles Nicholson, who was to have taken place yesterday afternoon at the residence, 227 North First street, was postponed until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Special convocation, Star chapter No. 47, Royal Arch Masons, this evening. Work in the first and second degrees. All Royal Arch Masons in good standing are cordially invited.

Justice Sweeney performed a double wedding yesterday. The contracting parties were Mrs. J. W. Squire, 322 Story street, and F. S. Neher and Anna Paskell, all of this city.

Charles Gregory has returned from Chicago, where he has been on a race track

Washington park. While there he was received by pickpockets of $100 in cash and $500 in drafts.

Monter Vincent, the sister superior of St.

Bernard's hospital, who has been dangerously ill for the past two weeks, is recovering slowly. Yesterday she sat up for a time, and it is thought she is out of all immediate danger.

William Walters was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant filed by George Pittman charging him with disturbing the peace. Dutton is the man with whom Walters had a fracas on the Fourth, and he claims that Walters committed the crime by attacking him. He claims that he only drew a knife on him in order to protect himself.

Lillie Mills, a denizen of Rotten Row, was arrested last night on 13th Main street while trying to teach the laws of etiquette to one of her girls whom she found drinking whisky in a saloon in that part of the city.

Her remarks were pretty highly flavored, and they grated on the sensitive ears of Officer Vaguek, who ran her in on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Mary Steele, one of the inmates of St.

Bernard's hospital, died yesterday morning of consumption, at the age of twenty-two years. She came to the hospital about a year ago with the expectation of taking the veils, but she was taken ill soon after, and ever since that time she has been awaiting the summons that came at last. The funeral will take place this morning at 8 o'clock from the hospital, Rev. Father Adolph officiating.

All Aboard C. Colfax.

Key Bros. Carriage Factory.

If you want to see a fine place visit Key Bros. carriage factory on lower Broadway.

They are working ninety men but still are crowded to keep up with their orders. This is the largest carriage factory west of St.

Louis, and there is only one as large in that city. The master building that is a landmark mark for the western part of the city, was built by Key Bros. expressly for the business, and is a model of convenience and comfort for employees and all others, and is pleasant in summer and warm and cheerful in winter. The great factory makes over thirty different kinds of carriages, from carriages, cut-under surreys, buggies, spring wagons, park wagons, road wagons, road carts, etc.

It is a busy and cheerful place to visit, and Key Bros. make all welcome who desire to visit the factory and see what is going on in our industry.

High School Alumni.

The twentieth anniversary of the Council Bluffs high school alumni association, was celebrated last evening in the auditorium of the Bloomer school by a reception to the class of '91 and a banquet. A large audience assembled, and an enjoyable evening was spent. Emmett Tinley, the president of the association, called the meeting to order and made an address of welcome. A fine solo was given by a violin solo, "Il Bach," by Miss Clara Chabrier, which was well received. Mr. M. J. Oliver sang a beautiful solo, after which the introductory part of the programme was completed by a duet and violin duet by Messrs. Frank Badoluti and Paul Talley.

The banquet was then served, after which toasts were in order. Judge W. L.

Smith responded to the toast, "The Common School System." William S. Baird spoke on

"Our Guests, the Class of '91." "Education is the Keynote of our Civilization," was the subject of John M. Gault's speech, and Prof. H. W. Sawyer closed the exercises with a toast to "The Alumni." All of the speakers were well received, and the attention, and were greeted with every applause. The entertainment was in every way a great success, and reflected much credit on those who had the management of affairs.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Rau Interfered Somewhat with Pleasure at the Chautauqua Grounds.

DR. GILLET'S BROKEN CONTRACT.

Considerable Indignation Felt Over

His Cool Abandonment of the Work Intrusted to His Care

—Today's Programme.

Rain allied the crowds at the Chautauqua assembly yesterday. The waters fell constantly, and in a brisk, unobtrusive way they seemed to perform a duty which they had mission to perform, but in a slow, monotonous drizzle that led one to believe it only rained out of lack of anything else to do. The roads leading to the grounds and the grounds themselves became too muddy for comfort and no one stirred out of his tent unless he had to.

In spite of the discomfort there was no complaint. The audience had been through the mill before and had gone to camping out with a full knowledge beforehand of what risks he was running, so no one really had any right to complain. On the whole the best of good nature prevailed.

The audience were rather tight all day, although the programme was followed out about as announced yesterday. The Swedish male quartet arrived on the grounds yesterday for the first time and appeared on the platform in the afternoon. They made a great hit and the compliments that were bestowed on them were many. Leon H.

Vincent delivered a very scholarly and interesting lecture in the morning on "Holmes," and in the afternoon John Dewitz Miller lectured to a fair-sized audience. In spite of the unpropitious surroundings, he was the same interesting speaker as ever, and although his white hair had become somewhat begrimed in the mud, they did not detract materially from his interest.

The following programme has been arranged for today:
